LONDON, April 10.

The humble ADDRESS of the Right Honourable the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, in Parliament Aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE Your Majeſty's moſt dutyful and loyal Subjects, The Lords Spiritual and Temporal, in Parliament Aſſembled, beg Leave to return Your Majeſty our moſt humble Thanks for your moſt Gracious Speech from the Throne, and for Your Majeſty's great Attention and Care for the Preſervation of the Ballance of Power, and the Peace and Liberties of Europe, in which the Tranquility and Security of theſe Kingdoms are ſo nearly intereſted.

We cannot but expreſs our great Concern, That a War has broke out, and is carried on in Part of the Auſtrian Dominions; and we are highly ſenſible of Your Majeſty's Royal Wiſdom, in the Reſolution You have been pleaſed to declare for the Maintenance of the Pragmatick Sanction, and the Aſſiſtance of the Queen of Hungary.

We aſſure Your Majeſty, That in Caſe it ſhall become neceſſary to enter into ſtill further Expences in ſo juſt a Cauſe, Your Majeſty may depend on our zealous and chearful Concurrence, in enabling Your Majeſty to contribute, in the moſt effectual Manner, to the Support of the Queen of Hungary; and to the preventing, by all reaſonable Means, the Subverſion of the Houſe of Auſtria, the ancient and natural Ally of the Britiſh Crown.

We think ourſelves obliged, upon this Occaſion, to renew the Profeſſions of our moſt dutiful and inviolable Fidelity; and to give Your Majeſty the ſtrongeſt Aſſurances, That if any Part of Your Dominions altho' not belonging to the Crown of Great-Britain, ſhould be attacked or Inſulted, by any Prince or Power whatſoever, in Reſentment of the juſt and neceſſary Meaſures which Your Majeſty hath taken, or ſhall take, for maintaining the Pragmatick Sanction, we are determined to exert ourſelves to the utmoſt, in defending and protecting ſuch Dominions from any ſuch Attacks or Inſults.

To which His MAJESTY was pleaſed to give this moſt Gracious ANSWER.

MY LORDS,

I THANK you very kindly for this moſt ſeaſonable and dutyful Addreſs. The true Concern you ſhew for the Aſſiſtance of the Queen of Hungary, and the Support of the Houſe of Auſtria, is very agreeable to me.

The Aſſurance you give me, in relation to my Territories Abroad, is a ſtrong Proof of your Affection to Me, and you may depend on My making no other Uſe of the Confidence you repoſe in Me, than to enable Me to act with Vigour, in maintaining the Pragmatick Sanction and in the Preſervation of the Ballance and the Liberties of Europe, and of Our common Intereſt and Security.

The Humble ADDRESS of the Houſe of Commons to His MAJESTY.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Great Britain, in Parliament aſſembled, beg Leave to return Your Majeſty our moſt humble Thanks for Your Majeſty's moſt Gracious Speech from the Throne; and to expreſs our dutiful Senſe of Your Majeſty's juſt and due Regard for the Rights and Intereſt of the Queen of Hungary, and for the maintaining the Pragmatick Sanction. We cannot but entirely concur in the prudent Meaſures which Your Majeſty is purſuing, for the Support of the common Cauſe, and for the Preſervation of the Liberties, and the Ballance of Power in Europe. We acknowledge Your Majeſty's Wiſdom and Reſolution, in not ſuffering Yourſelf to be diverted from ſteadily perſevering in Your juſt Purpoſes of fulfilling the Engagements which Your Majeſty has enter'd into with the Houſe of Auſtria; and do aſſure Your Majeſty, that in Juſtice, and in Vindication of the Honour and Dignity of the Britiſh Crown, this Houſe will effectualy ſtand by and Support Your Majeſty againſt all Inſults and Attacks which any Prince or Power, in Reſentment of the juſt Meaſures Your Majeſty has ſo wiſely taken, ſhall make upon any of Your Majeſty's Territories or Dominions, though not belonging to the Crown of Great Britain. And we beg Leave further to aſſure Your Majeſty, that in any future Events which may ariſe from this uncertain State of Things and which may make it neceſſary for Your Majeſty to enter into ſtill larger Expences, Your faithful Commons will enable Your Majeſty to contribute, in the moſt effectual Manner, to the Support of the Queen of Hungary, to the preventing by all reaſonable Means, the Subverſion of the Houſe of Auſtria, and to the maintaining the Pragmatick Sanction, and the Liberties and Ballance of Europe.

To which His MAJESTY was pleaſed to give this moſt Gracious ANSWER.

GENTLEMEN,

I Give you my Thanks for this dutiful and loyal Addreſs. Your great Readineſs in enabling me to make good my Engagements with the Queen of Hungary, and the Aſſurances you give me, not to ſuffer my foreign Dominions to be inſulted, on Account of the Meaſures I am purſuing for the Support of the Pragmatick Sanction, are ſuch evident Proofs of your juſt Concern for maintaining the Liberties and Ballance of Power in Europe, and of your great Regard for my Honour and Intereſt, that you may depend upon all ſuitable Returns from Me for this particular Mark of your Affection and Confidence in Me.

This Day the King went to the House of Peers, with the usual State, in order to give the Royal Assent to such Bills as were ready for that Purpose, after which his Majesty made a most gracious Speech to both Houses, and put an End to the Session. On Monday next a Proclamation will be published for dissolving the present Parliament, and on Tuesday Writs will be issued for electing a new one.

April 28. A Proclamation was published for dissolving the present Parliament, and calling a new one. Letters from France Yesterday mention, that the Marquis d'Antin had been kill'd in a Duel with the Marquis de Rocheville, who was his Commodore. It is said that the Marquis d'Antin had not used the Commodore well in his Voyage; and that when they came home, the Marquis de Rocheville sent the Marquis d'Antin a Challenge, which he accepted, and scarce a Pass was made before he was run through the Body; the Marquis de Rocheville immediately absented himself.

May 2. 'Tis said that Eight Thousand Saxons will be taken into the Pay of Great-Britain.

Last Thursday the Marquis de Rocheville, who in a Duel dispatch'd the Marquis d'Antin, the French Admiral, arriv'd here from Brest.

Letters from Cadiz mention, that Admiral Delano sailed from thence, April 15, with 9 large Men of War, and under their Convoy 6 Register Ships. Remaining in Port 6 large Men of War, and 6 of the largest Ships of the Fleta, to be fitted out as Men of War.

May 4. On Saturday last the Tenders belonging to the Barfleur and Duke Men of War brought into the Downs, a Barcolongo, call'd the N. S. de la Assumption, commanded by Don Augustino Samana. She mounts 10 Guns, and has 45 Men on board.

It is confidently said, that the French Fleet have, from the Time they left Europe to their Return, lost 5000 Men, including those who died on board the Ships still abroad, and of whom the others brought an exact Account.

On Saturday last James Oglethorpe and Peter Burrel, Esqrs were elected Burgesses to serve in the ensuing Parliament, for the Borough of Haslemere in Surrey.

May 11. On Friday Admiral VERNON and Samuel Kent, Esq; of Vaux hall, were chosen Members for Ipswich, against Knox Ward, Esq;

Last Thursday Mr. Greenville, Nephew to Lord Cobham, and Mr. Denton, were chosen Members of Parliament for the Town of Buckingham, without spending Six Pence; and we heartily wish we could say the same of any one Borough Town in Great-Britain.

A Person of Quality set out the 6th Instant from Stockholm, for France, to acquaint that Court with the sailing of their Transports, and to sollicit the Auxiliary Squadron which his most Christian Majesty promised to send to the Baltick for the Service of Sweden.

Capt. Norris, of the Kinsale Man of War, station'd off Lisbon, has taken a Spanish Privateer of 10 Carriage and 8 Swivel Guns, and 90 Hands.

Five Men of War lately sail'd from Port l'Orient on a Secret Expedition.

On Wednesday last the Honourable George Clinton, Esq; Uncle to the present Earl of Lincoln, kiss'd his Majesty's Hand, on his being appointed Governor of New-York.

They write from Leghorn, that M. Wachtendonck was making Preparations for a vigorous Resistance in case of an Attack, having pallisadoed the Out-side of Leghorn, and assembled all his Troops, in order to form a Camp near Sienna.

Letters from Sweden import, that 40 Galleys, with Transports, of about 10,000 Men on board, sail'd from Carelscroon the 5th Inst. for Finland, under Convoy of 4 Men of War.

Letters in Town advise, that the Dursley Galley of 20 Guns, has taken a large Spanish Ship, bound for Oran, off the Streigths Mouth, having on board 500 Head of Cattle, 600 Sacks of Flour, 200 Soldiers, and a great Number of Sailors. In the Engagement the Spaniards boarded the Man of War twice, but were beaten off, taken and carried into Gibraltar.

On Friday last Capel Hanbury and John Cafwall, Esqrs. were chosen Members for Leominster.

The Zant, Capt. Whitwood, arrived at Lisbon from Leghorn, was between the Cape St. Vincent and Cape St. Mary, on the 16th of April, chas'd for 12 Hours by eight Spanish Men of War. There were in Company with him Capt. James from Leocata, and Capt. Russel from Gallipoli, for London, who lay by, taking the Spaniards for the English Fleet.

Admiral Haddock has sent Part of his Squadron in quest of the above Spanish Fleet.

Charlestown, August 22. Thursday the 13th Instant arrived here a Spanish Privateer Sloop, with 12 Guns and 65 Men: She was taken (on Saturday the 7th) near our Bar, by the Honourable Capt. George Townshend in his Majesty's Ship the Tartar Pink, after a Chase of 15 Hours with a strong Gale of Wind. The Privateer had been out but 15 Days from the Havannah when taken, where they had not yet receiv'd any Advice of Admiral Vernon's being at St. Jago; so that 'tis very probable he is gone to surprize the Town of Carthagena, as was last Week reported.

We hear, that the same Day as Capt. Townshend took the aforesaid Sloop, he chas'd a large black Sloop, suppos'd to be a Spanish Privateer, but was oblig'd to leave her on seeing the former coming after him; however before he left her, he saw (as he suppos'd him to be) Capt. Rous in Sight of and crowding Sail after the said Sloop.

We hear also, That Capt. Townshend had seen the small Privateer which took Mr. Mazyck's Schooner, but she running into shallow Water, and his Boats being ashore at Winyaw to fetch some Deserters, she escap'd him for the present.

Last Friday arrived here Capt. Nicholas Legall in the Snow Elizabeth, (Capt. Nath. Shaw,) who gives us the following Account, viz. That on the 20th of July last his Schooner was taken, off the Babama Islands, by a large black Spanish Privateer Sloop, with 6 small Carriage Guns and 135 Men, and is a Prime Sailor; That on the 21st the Snow Elizabeth (aforesaid) was also taken, after which 24 Spaniards were put on board both Prizes, with Orders to proceed immediately to the Havanna or Cape Francois, and the Privateer proceeded to cruise to the Northward: The two Prizes meeting with nothing but contrary Winds, caused the Spaniards to come so short of Provisions, that they resolved to strip the Englishmen, give 'em the Snow (she being leaky) and turn them a drift, all which they accordingly did on the 7th Instant, leaving no Instruments on board, nor any Thing else than a Main Top Sail and an old Fore Sail, even those not without being cut almost to Pieces, as Marks of Spanish Generosity.

On Sunday last died much lamented, Capt. Thomas Gadsden, who has been Collector of his Majesty's Customs in this Province for about 19 Years past.
